Announcement of Order to Set the Period of Special Investigation

On January 24, 2019, the rehabilitation trustee determined acceptance and rejection of the rehabilitation claims other than rehabilitation claims of MTGOX bitcoin exchange users regarding refund of cash or cryptocurrency against MTGOX (the “Exchange-Related Rehabilitation Claims”), and on March 15, 2019, the rehabilitation trustee determined the acceptance and rejections of the Exchange-Related Rehabilitation Claims. However, the rehabilitation trustee is still receiving a certain number of new proofs of rehabilitation claims from creditors by post after the above acceptance and rejection.

Against this background, on February 14, 2020, the Tokyo District Court issued an order to set a period for conducting special investigation to examine new proofs of rehabilitation claims and submission deadline for the rehabilitation trustee of the statement of acceptance or rejection for the special investigation.

[Content of the order]

1. Submission deadline for the rehabilitation trustee’s statement of acceptance or rejection:
March 11, 2020
2. Period of special investigation to examine proofs of rehabilitation claims:
